DEWAN OF MYSORE

LAKE VIEW,
YELWAL ROAD,
MYSORE.

14th June 1917.

My dear Mr. Narasimha Rao,

I shall be obliged if you will kindly note the following matters for consideration at the next meeting of Council:-

(1) Increasing the daily allowance of Mr. S. Hiriyannaiya from Rs.4 to Rs.5

Converting his local allowance of Rs.50 and carriage allowance of Rs.50 into a consolidated local allowance of Rs.100.

(2) Changing the designation of Mr. M.G. Rangaiya from Assistant Secretary to Under Secretary.

Yours sincerely,
M. Visvesvaraya

The rate of daily allowance fixed for the Private Secretary to the Dewan in Appendix "E" to the Mysore Service Regulatio is the same as that ordinarily admissible to officers of the Assistant Commissioners grade, viz., Rs.4. An exception has been made in the case of Under Secretaries to Government, who though belonging to the Assistant Commissioners' grade are entitle to a daily allowance of Rs.5.

The present Private Secretary, being an officer of the Subordinate Judges' grad has a higher status and draws a higher salary than an Under Secretary and it is anomalous that he should be entitled to a daily allowance of only Rs.4 while the allowance admissible to an Under Secretary is Rs.5.

For the above reasons it is suggested for consideration that the rate of daily allowance admissible to the present Private Secretary to the Dewan be increased to Rs.5 so long as he continues to hold that appointment.

D. M. Narayana Rao 24/6

Secretary to Government,
General Department,

Under the proposals in the t. a. revision scheme under Secretaries will draw a D. a. of Rs 4/- only. I am respectfully of opinion that this rate may be fixed for all officers ~~subscribe~~ except appointed as under Secretaries. The D. a. of a Subjudge under the present rule is Rs 4 - If this suggestion is adopted then perhaps there will be no need to sanction the present proposal -

An officer drawn to the Secretariat appointment or personal staff from a subordinate appointment in the general line may in future be allowed to draw the rate fixed for his ~~own~~ substantive appointment or for the Secretariat or staff appointment held by him whichever is higher.

Like Mr. Rangayya / Hiriyanna

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

Submitted to His Highness.

Under the Mysore Service Regulations, the rate of daily allowance fixed for the Private Secretary to the Dewan is the same as that ordinarily admissible to - officers of the Assistant Commissioners' grade, viz., Rs.4, whereas Under Secretaries to Government, though belonging to the Assistant Commissioners' grade, are allowed a daily allowance of Rs.5.

2. The present Private Secretary, Mr.Hiriyannaiya, is an officer of the Subordinate Judges' grade and consequently has a higher status and draws a higher salary than an ordinary Assistant Commissioner. It is somewhat anomalous that the latter when Under Secretary is entitled to a daily allowance of Rs.5 whereas the former is permitted to draw only Rs.4 a day. The Council are therefore of opinion that his daily allowance may be increased from Rs.4 to Rs.5. This increased rate will be personal to Mr. Hiriyannaiya.

3. The Financial Secretary states that there will perhaps be no need to sanction this proposal, if the suggestion to reduce the daily allowance of Under Secretaries to Rs.4 made in connection with the general revision of the travelling allowance rules be approved by Government. Mr.Datta has just noted upon this large subject and it will be some time before final orders can be passed on this general question.

4. In these circumstances, the opinion of the Council may be graciously approved.
